FROZEN OUT AT ST. PAUL. Indianapolis Loses Her Third Game by a

Score of 8 to 1.

Brecial to the Indianapolis Journal. St. Paul, Minn., April 23.-Indianapolis was literally frozen out here to-day. It was the first championship game played on the home grounds, and the event had to be properly celebrated. Therefore, the boys were compelled to march for two hours behind a brass band with the thermometer | started. In less than a minute the ranging in the neighborhood of zero. When they reached the grounds the "Disciples" were all right-they are used to the rigorous climate-but the visitors were frozen stiff, and played a weak game all the way through. It is probable that if this weather continues they will play in bear-skin coats to-morrow or have some contrivance to protect them from the cold. To help along a little, the grounds were damp. Berger, the Pittsburg "phenom." did not play. Meara muffed three easy balls in one inning and each muff gave St. Paul arun. Bill O'Brien dropped a ball in the center of the diamond, and while the whole infield was falling ail over it St. Paul got two more runs. Madden, like the rest of the team, was not in good form and had hard work in getting the ball past the batters.

The Hoosiers found the same trouble at the bat that they did in the field. They could not hit Cunningham a little bit, and when they did they accomplished nothing in particular, for the home team was putting up a strong game in the field. Donohue started it in the first inning by making a first-class stop and long throw from left field to third. Holland made a hot stop at short in the sixth, and he and Alvord made s beautiful double play in the ninth.

OMAHA, Neb., April 23.-The Omaha team won to-day's game in the first inning, three hits being made in succession, followed by a wild throw to first by Newell. Vickery was in the box, and his work was superb, only three hits being made off him. Pears, for the Toledos, did effective work after the first inning, and he was ably supported. Collopy's brilliant work on third base was the feature of the game. Score:

MINNEAPOLIS, April 23 .- Thirty-five hundred people shivered with cold as they saw Ward, of Milwaukee, bat out a game for the visitors. Out of four times at the bat he made two home-runs and a two-bagger. Each home run brought in another run besides his own. The support given both pitchers was excellent, but the errors by the home team, though fewer in number. were costly ones. Score:

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Chicago Robbed of a Game by a Mob That Took Possession of the Field.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CHICAGO, April 23 .- Over eight thousand people saw the opening game of the local league season to-day. Chicago won the game on its merits, but lost it because one thousand or more addle-heads swarmed into the field and blocked the game so effectually that at the end of fifteen minutes umpire Sheridan was compelled by the rules to forfeit the game to Louisville by the score of 9 to 0. This happened after the Chicago's half of the ninth, when the score stood 4 to 2 in favor of the colts. The day, which had started in sunny and warm, suddenly turned raw and chilly. The spectators became cold, and just as the last Chicagoan was put out a fusillade of cushions was stands were practically deserted and the field was in possession of the mob. The diamond and outfield was black with men, The police did not try to force the crowd back and umpire Sheridan and Captain Anson twice cleared the field, but only for an instant, when the mob was in possession. Decent people were disgusted. The game was close and exciting. Luby effective for Chicago. he was hit it was hard. a "kunnel" connected with a base bag after the fourth inning. Jones, the "south paw," was somewhat erratic, and one of his bases on balls materialized into runs. Nobody gave Anson any flowers. Instead of that the crowd robbed him of his game.

The Divine Bernhardt Flies Into a Passion Over Something She Could Not Fathom.

NEW YORK, April 28.-The divine Sara has struck a new advertising dodge, her poodle, bear, kangaroo, coon and snake fads having become somewhat worn. Last Thursday night the Bernhardt and some members of her company went to a spiritualistic seance, and she made a great scene before she got out. The medium-a woman -was locked in a cabinet, and then there were many apparitions. With one the Bernhardt shook hands, and while doing so the apparition disappeared. Sarah dropped back into her seat.

"I take her hand," she said, "I scratch. I try to make the spirit cry. I tear the flesh with my nails. She no scream at all." The last test was the appearance of the medium in the midst of the witnesses, the cabinet having not been unlocked, and Berhnardt's leading man, Darmont, holding the key. Then the actress became mad and stormed. She stalked up and down in tragic rage, growing more furious every moment.

'No; it cannot be," she screamed. "You must be in league with the medium. It is impossible." She perambulated around the room, followed by M. Darmont, who was greatly agitated. "Madam," he exclaimed, "I swear to you that I locked the medium in the cabinet. Believe me, madam, I am not mistaken. She was there, and I closed the door."

"No," screamed the actress. "It cannot be. It is impossible. It must be the work of the devil. You are all fools or confed-The Bernhardt was livid with rage. She made a rush for the cabinet, and tried to find out if it was ghost-proof. She ran all round it, and banged it with her fists. "It seemed as if she was in the cabinet!" screamed the actress, "but there must be some deception." The Bernbardt left the house in a towering rage. The members of her company followed her, greatly chagrined at her conduct.

SAD CORNER-STONE LAYING.

Huge Girder Gives Way and a Crowd Is Precipitated with Fatal Effect.

HOLYOKE, Mass., April 23 .- A shocking accident occurred during the exercises attending the corner-stone laying of the new Young Men's Christian Association gymnasium this afternoon. An iron girder weighing a ton, held in place temporarily by a brace, gave way under the weight of the crowd which had climbed up to get a good view of the ceremonies. It fell without a moment's warning, carrying with it a lot of timbers. George Merrick, a wealthy young man, was crushed to death. Mrs. H. B. Terry, wife of the cashier of the South Hadley Falls National Bank, was caught under the timbers and hurt in the back and head. H. E. Nash had his head and back injured seriously. The others seriously injured were: T. H. Butler and wife, T. W. Spencer, F. H. Chamberlain, Fred Miner, Mrs. Seymour, Mrs. G. G. Reed, Mrs. Haskell, A. F. Adams and John Higginbotham. President Gates, of Amherst College, was speaking when the accident occurred, and there was instant panic in the crowd. Women fainted, and a force of police was called out to keep the people back. When the injured had been extricated from the ruins Rev. G. W. for the injured. He asked divine blessing on the building and pronounced the benediction.

Just opposite Fort Mickien, however, an accident marred the auspicious circumstances attending the heginning of the trip. The Mayor stumbled over an obstruction on the breakwater deck and fell heavily, dislocating his left shoulder.

LONDON, April 23.-The community gen-

to be as bold in London as they were in LONDON, April 23,-The orders and arrangements for the great autumn maneuvers of the Austrian army near Przemysl, in eastern Galicia, show that the War Department intends to make a counter-demonstration to the Russian maneuvers which have taken place for the past six years on the frontier and to the massing of Russian troops there. The general staff decided on Friday that fully 100,000 men would be in the field and every department of warfare would be tested. Many of the operations will take place by electric lights from balloons and from flash lights accompanying the infantry. Communication between the commanders will be made by field telegraphs, which, it is claimed, can be laid as fast as a cavalryman with a spool of telegraph wire on his back can travel. The bicycle corps will be available for the carrying of dispatches over shorter distances. It is significant in view of the recent appearance of German balloons over Russian fortifications on the western frontier, that all the members of the School of Military Aeronautics in Vienna will attend the mapenvers to show their ability as spies in designed, besides

Besides the Emperor Franz Josef, Emperor William of Germany and the King of Saxony are expected to be present during the four days' operations.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS. The Coming Wedding of Miss Mildred Stuart and Viscount Chelsea.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LONDON, April 23.-The swellest wedding of the year will doubtless be that of Viscount Chelsea and Miss Mildred Stuart, which occurs on April 30, in Holy Trinity Church, Chelsea. The Viscount 18 son and heir of Earl Cadogan, one of the wealthiest noblemen of England, and bears an excellent character. He is, perhaps, as desirable a "catch" as there is in the kingdom, and it is known that the Queen desired to bring about a match between him and the Princess Mand of Wales. But the young nobleman preferred his present choice to even a member of the royal family. The prospective bride, who is a daughter of Lord Arlington, is twentythree and her fiance twenty-four years of age. She is very popular in society, and also among the poor who have received many proofs of her benevolent disposition. She has for a long time presided over the meeting of the London street flower girls, and they will present her with a magniticent tridal bouquet of lilies of the valley. There will be nine brides-maids, and the bridegroom's brother will act as best man. Princess Mary to Wed Prince George. LONDON, April 23. - The Manchester Courier says that the betrothal of Prince George, only son of the Prince of Wales, and Princess Mary Victoria, daughter of the Duke and Duchess of Teck, has been definitely decided upon, and that it will shortly be announced. No surprise is occasioned by the statement. It was reported shortly after the death of the Duke of Clarence and Avondale, the elder brother of Prince George, to whom the Princess was engaged, that such a marriage would be arranged. It is said that the Queen, who is very fond of Princess May, is heartily in favor of the betrothal, and that, in fact, it was her influence that brought it about. The marriage of the Prince and Princess would be greeted with much satisfaction by the people with whom they are both extremely popular.

To-day Mrs. Stanley said that her husband had made threats to annihilate Recorder McDonough, the police, and to blow up Wagner's saloon when he got out of prison, and she was in great fear that he would carry out his threat. The woman also informed the policeman that her husband had been engaged lately in manufact-uring dynamite bombs and other death distributors, and offered to convince him that such was the fact if he would accompany her to the house. A policeman went to Stanley's house and there in a room, occupied as a work-shop, was found explosives, pieces of gas-pipe with triggers attached for bombs, compressed white powder, swords. revolvers, and two boxes of cartridges of 38 calibre. These were seized and sent to police headquarters and the white powder, the most dangerous explosive known, was thrown into the river.
